Area churches continue to schedule events and weekly activities throughout summer, ranging from acts of service to spiritual worship.

Paige Roberts, head of Campus Ministry at the Wesley Foundation, explained the distinction between the Wesley foundation and the Wesley United Methodist Church. The Wesley Foundation is "strictly for college-age adults," she said.

Roberts discussed some of the services offered to students free of charge.

The Foundation allows students to use their building for wireless Internet. There is also study space available throughout the building. A kitchen and a pool table are available for students' needs and entertainment.

The Wesley Foundation invites individuals to congregate in worship on Wednesday nights at 9 p.m. in the Wesley UMC Fellowship Hall.

Paige Roberts describes the service as a "traditional style of worship."

Wesley United Methodist Church strongly encourages their motto, "Growing in love for God and neighbor." Many activities occur on a weekly basis.

Wesley UMC continues to host their annual Vacation Bible School June 20-24, from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. Wesley also helps with Angel Food Ministry, an organization that provides food at low cost to anyone. The supply will be distributed this month from 10 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Saturday at First Baptist Church.

Mary Ann Taber, member of Wesley UMC said "anyone is invited to come."

Wesley UMC youth group meetings are scheduled for once each month on Wednesdays.

Boy Scout Troop 141, which includes ages 11 through 17, meets every second and fourth Monday of each month at 7 p.m.

They take part in monthly outings that include activities such as camping and canoeing. Summer camp for the troop is planned for June 20 through 26 at Rhodes France Scott Reservation.

The Newman Center continues to partake in Mass over the summer. Mass is held on Sundays Mornings at 10:30 a.m. and on Tuesdays evenings at 5 p.m.

Bible Study is available on Mondays at 6 p.m. and on Tuesdays at 2 p.m., according to the Newman Center's website.

The Christian Campus House schedules bible study for every Wednesday at 7 p.m. Matthew Thomas, a minister at the Christian Campus house said they are now in the process of planning the National Student Conference that will take place in the fall.

Immanuel Lutheran Church will be having a Vacation Bible School this summer June 6 through June 11 from 9 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. for children age three to fourth grade.

"The theme this year is High Sea Adventure," said Michaele Hoover, first lady of Immanuel Lutheran Church.

Sunday services at Immanuel Lutheran are scheduled for 8 a.m. and 10:45 a.m. Hoover said the 8 a.m. service is "blended" and the 10:45 a.m. service is more contemporary.
